Committee/Council Reports:

Councilman DiMeo questioned the hours of the restroom. Mr. DiMeo stated his understanding was that the restrooms were to be opened from Memorial Day through Labor Day.

Council President Oglesby answered the understanding was since Lake Horicon is “technically” closed and that the restrooms were closed as soon as the Memorial Day ceremony was over.

Mr. DiMeo responded the park is still open.

Mr. Oglesby stated that is why he had Public Works reopen the bathrooms after the Memorial Day Ceremony and added Police Chief Kline and Public Works Department Head Dave Winton are working on the logistics of the opening and closing of the restrooms.
Councilwoman Dugan commended Public Works for preparing the Memorial at Lake Horicon for the ceremony and added the ceremony was well attended. Ms. Dugan reported the ADA ramps are being installed along Union Avenue and Brown Avenue by the county. Ms. Dugan further reported that Mr. Winton met with the Borough Engineer in regard to the 2023 NJDOT grant adding they are looking at Pine Street, Union Avenue and Division Street in the Westlake section of Lakehurst.
