COMMITTEE/COUNCIL REPORTS:

Councilwoman Hodges concurred with Council President Oglesby's comments on the lake and would like to give a big kudos to the Public Works Department.

Councilman DiMeo reported that the Youth and Recreation Committee is working with the Lakehurst Community Collaboration Group that has built up, trying to bring different aspects of the community together. Mr. DiMeo stated that the group is sponsoring a town wide clean up on April 20, 2024, that begins at noon at the Lake Horicon. Mr. DiMeo also noted that lunch will be provided at the lake after the cleanup.

Mayor Robbins stated that the restrooms at the lake are closed but he will speak with David Winton, Public Works Department Head, to see if they can be opened sooner.

Mr. DiMeo stated that the governing body's laptops are in at Borough Hall and asked everyone to swing by and pick them up. Mr. DiMeo went on to say that the computers are not set up to the individual and to reach out to himself, or Coastal Solutions, if there are any problems setting them up.

Council President Oglesby reported that he has some personnel issues that will be discussed in executive session.

Councilwoman Dugan reported that the Department Heads and the Chief Financial Officer, Wayne Sibilia, had a meeting adding that the budget should be introduced the first meeting in May. Mrs. Dugan also noted that the Youth & Recreation Committee meeting on Monday was good and that a representative from Navy Lakehurst was there adding she could be a valuable resource to the town.

Councilman Davis reported that two of our "fairly important" vehicles at the Public Works are down with drive train issues and that we are moving forward with getting them fixed.

Councilman McCarthy reported that we received one new police vehicle and that we stumbled upon a second unit that was a left over. Mr. McCarthy stated that once the second new vehicle is outfitted then we will auction off the car being retired from the fleet.
